

CONGREGATIONAL MINISTRY DESCRIPTION

Trinity Lutheran Church, Savannah, Georgia

MINISTRY NAME

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

PURPOSE

- To guide the congregation's ongoing Christian education efforts, and provide learning opportunities for all members, child and adult, as well as for prospective members.
- To strengthen the Christian home and help equip the parents, children, and young people for Christian family living.
- To provide and promote cooperative leadership education to, and oversight and coordination of, volunteer members involved in Christian Education.

COMPOSITION & ORGANIZATION

The Board of Christian Education, hereafter referred to as the BOARD, shall normally consist of a CHAIR and recruited voting members of the congregation. The CHAIR is elected by the voting members of the congregation at an appropriate and regularly scheduled Voter's Assembly meeting. The Chair will serve a term as specified in the church Bylaws, and is a designated voting member of the Church Council. Willing and able voting members of the congregation will be recruited to serve on the BOARD and its various subcommittees. In the absence of an elected candidate to serve as the CHAIR, the Director of Christian Education will serve as the CHAIR until 1) the election of a candidate to the CHAIR position at the next scheduled Voter's Assembly meeting in which candidates are elected, or 2) the Church Council appoints an individual to the position.

- There shall be a minimum of three persons, excepting the CHAIR, serving on the BOARD.
- There shall be no limit to the maximum number of persons serving to accomplish the functions of the BOARD.
- The BOARD, under normal circumstances, shall meet at least once each month, except up to twice per year at the discretion of the CHAIR, provided sufficient advance notice is communicated to all BOARD members.

ACCOUNTABILITY

The CHAIR is accountable to the Church Council, with oversight and guidance provided by the Director of Christian Education.

QUALIFICATIONS

The CHAIR shall have the talents, necessary aptitude, and commitment to function as a member of the Church Council. They shall be a committed Christian, capable of receiving direction from and cooperatively working with the Director of Christian Education, facilitating the direction of other BOARD members, and interacting with congregational members of all ages.
